Social

St. George's Guild
C/ Núñez de Balboa 43 (metro Velazquez)

English-speaking group for all ages. Founded 30 years ago as a relaxed and informal meeting place where people could exchange views and enjoy listening to a good talk on a range of topics. The founders of the guild emphasised the international and interdenominational outlook of the group at a period of Spain's history when it was not easy to meet people of other nationalities and faiths.

Programme for 2009

- 03 November: "The Making of US Foreign Policy" given by Ms Strother Murray, Political-Military Officer and First Secretary of the American Embassy.

- 01 December: American Fulbright Scholar and classical guitarist, Adam Levin, talks about his life and musical projects in Madrid and plays some guitar pieces.

Time:

11:00 - coffee and introductions.

11.20 - talk followed by questions/discussion

English Library open for joining/browsing. For more information contact Jenny on 628601125 or jennyeffer@hotmail.com
